

Certificate

greenline

greenline guarantees for the new generation of plastic window profiles of Profine GmbH International Profile Group.

As a leader in the production of window profiles, Profine GmbH concern uses a new plastic stabilized with calcium and zinc and completely free of lead, for the manufacture of all profile systems.

This Certificate guarantees that our partner company and Profine GmbH are committed to compliance with environmental requirements.

greenline Certificate issued to Profine Recycline, KBE, Trocal and Kommerling brands profiles guarantees to all architects and building developers, that they will purchase environmentally-friendly and high quality windows that meet the technical requirements:

Profine GmbH concern guarantees their contract partners that supplied greenline profiles are made from a new material, stabilized by calcium and zinc and is completely free of lead.

greenline profiles meet the latest EU requirements of the Environmental Protection Commission to avoid lead as a stabilizer in industrial production.

No special processing with heavy metals is used from raw material production to the processing.

greenline windows have all classic advantages of plastic windows, in addition to:

- exceptional durability and longevity;
- higher thermal insulation;
- greater resistance to weather conditions;
- better quality of surfaces with matte sheen.

Lead-free stabilisation of greenline profile generation windows is a big contribution to environmental protection and quality, a cost and durability guarantee.

recycline

KBE

KÖMMERLING

TROCAL

